

The Cornelia Blackwell Memorial Essay Award

Submission Form

An essay competition entitled “The Importance of Teaching Business” was established by colleagues and friends of Cornelia Blackwell whose career in the Registrar’s Office of Westchester Community College demonstrated incredible assistance to students and especially to Alpha Beta Gammans. The essay is judged by the scholarship committee. An award of a $300.00 book stipend and a framed certificate will be presented to the finalist.

Only students who have not yet graduated with Associate degree are eligible to compete in this essay competition.
